THE MOST EFFECTUAL WAY TO CHEAPEN FOOD IN THE MINES.

The people of Victoria may say what they list about the importance of discovering a short cut to Cariboo for the purpose of cheapening the necessities of life in the interior, but our firm conviction is that the most effectual means of accomplishing this desirable object is by raising a sufficient supply of food for man and beast along the line of travel. A few miles, or even a hundred miles, is a mere bagatelle on a route possessing these substantial advantages.

When packers are obliged to pay as high as 60c. to 75c. a pound for barley with which to feed their trains of animals, and $1.50 to $2 a meal for themselves, it comes to be a very expensive affair. We understand the average expense in the upper country is $8 per day for each animal, and $6 a day for each man. Take a train of 50 animals, with 6 men, and you have an outlay of $480 a day! It is true the animals subsist much of the time on grass; but they cannot do as much work upon it as upon grain, nor will they keep in as good condition.

But what a wonderful change will be brought about through the cultivation of the soil along the line of road. Ten cents a pound will enable the farmer to realize a fortune in a very short time; and at ten cents a pound animals could be kept for about $1 a day, and the other incidental expenses would be reduced in an equal ratio. So that it will easily be seen that so soon as our road system is completed all the way through, and a sufficient supply of provender is raised on the spot, just so soon will the cost of transit to Cariboo be reduced to about one-third of what it is at present.

It is most gratifying to know that as far as Alexander the means of communication have been brought very near completion. A few weeks now will finish Wright's wagon road to where it will connect with the steamer Enterprise; while, beyond Alexander, the skill and energy of Capt. Grant will soon accomplish wonders, and so far as roads and steamboats are concerned, probably two months will see our transit facilities tolerably complete.

But the most gratifying feature of the case is yet to mention. The entire course of travel from New Westminster to Cariboo is now dotted with farms of a greater or less extent; and we are assured by reliable gentlemen that there will be an abundant supply of provender for animals and such farm and dairy produce as will be required for travellers and packers, even this season, raised upon these farms, and what is very important, there will be a supply for such as may be engaged in transporting goods to the interior during the ensuing winter, a season during which there is little doubt that a great deal will be done in that line.

With such substantial advantages as these, advantages which are increasing every day, the great Fraser River Route has indeed little to fear from the projected rival coast routes. And it only requires direct trade with this port to give an effectual and final quietus to all such foolish agitations, which are, after all, the offspring of Victoria jealousy rather than a desire to benefit the country.

POOR FELLOW.—Our contemporary of the Colonist must have been laboring under a fit of indigestion when "it" wrote the leader in "its" issue of the 11th inst., upon "Dictation and Intermeddling." After such a free discharge of bile, however, recovery is probable.

LEARN TO CONTROL THE VOICE.—To keep the lungs and the voice in good condition, it is necessary to give them plenty of exercise. This is doubtless one reason why it is so natural for young people to laugh, shout, and sing. The Creator intended that their vocal organs should be well developed in youth, and so it is found almost impossible to keep a child quiet long at a time. But boys and girls, you who are old enough to think about the matter, do not let this natural impulse make your company unpleasant to older persons. Let the playground, or the fields, ring with your happy shouts; there is plenty of room for noise there, and it will do you good, but in the house, learn to speak quietly. Keep the voice down to a pleasant tone. Loud words are very annoying to a tired or nervous person. —Am. Agriculturist.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE IN PARLIAMENT.—The Quebec correspondent of the Montreal Witness says that the friends of Temperance, in both branches of the Legislature, are again, this season, organizing themselves into a Temperance Society. The names of the following members head the list:—Hon. Malcolm Cameron, Mr. Mackenzie, Hon. Mr. Foley, Mr. Cowan, Hon. Mr. Blake, Hon. Mr. Christie, Mr. White, Mr. Biggar, Hon. Mr. McMaster, Mr. Dickson, Mr. Jobin and Mr. McKellar.

NEW WESTMINSTER, SATURDAY, MAY 16, 1863.
LATER FROM CARIBOO.
News to the 3rd May.

Mr. Jerald left Richfield on the 3rd inst., arriving in this city on the 14th, via Yale route. The snow was melting very rapidly, having been reduced to about 24 feet: water in all the creeks was consequently rising. Hard Curry & Co. had not been washing for nearly two weeks, having been employed in filling up an old shaft and otherwise putting matters to rights. The other claims were yielding as usual. The number of men on Williams Creek was rapidly increasing, and was estimated at 1400 to 1500, mostly employed. Many claims above the town were being opened, and work commencing.

LOWER CREEK.—Work had commenced, and many felt confident it would prove as rich as Williams.

LIGHTNING CREEK.—Prospecting had been done in the hill side during the winter, and very satisfactory prospects obtained. A lead was struck, supposed to run between Vanwinkle and Last Chance.

Commissioner O'Reilly arrived at Cottonwood on the 5th, and Assistant Commissioner Cox at Lake La Hache on the 8th, inst. Two loaded trains were at Beaver Pass on their way in to Vanwinkle.

The woods caught fire at the Mouth of Quesnelle on the 6th inst., and the wind being high at the time the town had a narrow escape. The new steamer Enterprise was lying at the landing at 4 mile Creek. She was getting up steam on the 11th to go to Fort Alexander for some freight for the Mouth of Quesnelle. Mr. Jerald says she is a splendid model and looks exceedingly well. Sellers & Dunlevy were busy on their ranch at Mad Lake, putting in their spring crop. Frank Way, at Deep Creek, was similarly engaged. He had 4 ploughs and 20 men at work, and calculated putting in 150 acres of grain. Mr. Anderson, the Jeffreys and many others were also busy putting in their crops. Hood and party had arrived at the Bonaparte and were about to commence on his road contract. The Royal Engineers had arrived at the scene of their labors at Cook & Kimball's Ferry. Mr. Trutch, with a strong force, was commenced at his bridge. The entire work on this route is intended to be completed by the 1st of August, when the trip from Yale to the steamboat landing on Soda Creek can be made inside of 5 days.

LOCAL PREJUDICE.—The Editor of the Colonist is wont to accuse us of having our judgment warped by local prejudice—of being "wedded to New Westminster," and all that sort of thing. We think few will be found to accuse us of studying the interests of this city any farther than they are identical with the general interests of the Colony. We defy any one to point out one instance wherein we have advocated a measure detrimental to the general good, for the purpose of benefiting the "capital," of which our contemporary has so much to say. We cannot say as much for the Editor of the Colonist, who would not only sacrifice the balance of the island in order to aggrandize his town, but would make this Colony, with all its vast interests, subservient to it also. A short time ago we had occasion to notice the accident to the str. Enterprise at Bute Inlet, and characterized the trip to that place as ill advised; what every one must admit now, if they did not at the time. No sooner had we done so than out comes our contemporary with an ill-natured article denouncing the item as another evidence of our local prejudice, and claiming that the accident to the steamer was very trifling, that the navigation to Bute Inlet was excellent, and that, in short, Capt. Mount would rather make a trip to that place than enter Victoria harbor! The sequel has proved who was blinded by local prejudice. The Enterprise has been laid up nearly a month now; and it is likely to be another month before she will be ready to go to sea. We fancy Capt. Mount will hardly bear out the Colonist's estimate of his appreciation of the splendid navigation of Bute Inlet. It is truly amazing how blind some people are to their own failings, and how anxious to pick faults in their neighbors. The Colonist's accusing us of local prejudice is about the coolest instance of Satan rebuking sin on record.

SLAVERY AMONGST THE INDIANS.—The "Domestic Institution" seems to be indigenous among the native tribes of these Colonies. In almost every tribe there are, more or less, slave owners, while some tribes devote themselves more especially to trafficking in slaves. They steal or capture in battle from one tribe and sell to another. To the class of slaves belong the Eucataws, a troublesome, warlike tribe, inhabiting a portion of Vancouver Island lying opposite Johnson's Straits. The intervention of British law was sought in this city a few days ago by a male slave, apparently somewhat over 40 years of age, who was enslaved while a little boy, and has continued ever since in bondage, having repeatedly passed from tribe to tribe, sometimes as an article of commerce and sometimes as a prize of war. The feeble old man was identified by certain members of his family by a slight spot over the left eye, and expressed a desire to have him return with them. This, however, he declined to do, but preferred to remain here and seek employment amongst the "King George men," with whom he thought he would be more secure against recapture by those who claimed him as their property. "The freedom of the city of New Westminster" was conferred upon him by Justice Brew, and the slave of over 30 years strutted off a free and happy man.

THE "PRINCE OF WALES."—This splendid new steamer, built by Golding & Co. to run on Tensas and Lillooet Lakes, made her trial trip on Wednesday, giving entire satisfaction. A serious accident happened just before she left the dock. Mr. Manning, who was employed in painting the steamer, got his leg entangled in the machinery, taking his foot clean off. Dr. Sylvester, of Douglas, was called in and performed amputation above the ankle joint. On account of this accident the steamer did not run through, but was to have done so on the following day. Mr. Manning was formerly a resident of this city.

MORE TREASURE.—The str. Col. Moody arrived from Douglas yesterday, having on board Dietz & Nelson's Express, in charge of Mr. Hughes, containing $20,000 in treasure. Mr. Calder, of the Treasury, was also a passenger, with $5,000 belonging to that Department.

THE STR. GOV. DOUGLAS went down to Victoria this morning for the purpose of bringing up 60 tons of wire for Mr. Trutch's bridge; she having the contract to deliver the material at Yale.

QUICK TRIP.—The str. Hope returned from Yale on Thursday night, having made the round trip in 33 hours, the quickest trip, we believe, on record.

THE TURF.—It will be observed by a reference to our advertising columns that the Yale Spring Meeting takes place on Monday week, the 25th inst. The programme is a very attractive one and the prizes as liberal as usual.

THE ROYAL COLUMBIAN HOSPITAL.—Mr. W. D. Ferris has received the appointment of Steward of this institution.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—The contract for building the new Presbyterian Church in this city has been awarded to Mr. A. H. Manson. It is to be completed in September next.

THE GOATS ARE GONE.—We have to congratulate our fellow citizens upon a most happy ride. The goats to which we alluded in our last issue have left town. Wonder if they took offense at our article? We hope to see no more of these pests. Several valuable young orchards have been totally destroyed by them this season.

THE ANNUAL FIRE is again raging in the woods in the rear of this city. Cordwood in considerable quantities, and some shingles have been consumed thereby.

Poetry.

THE NORMAN BARON.

By LONGELLOW.

In the chamber weak and dying,
Was the Norman Baron lying;
Loud without the tempest thundered,
And the castle turret shook.

In this flight was death the gainer,
Spite of vassal or retainer,
And the leads his sire had plundered
Written in the Doomsday book.

By his bed a monk was seated,
Who in humble voice repeated,
Many a prayer and pater-noster,
From the missal on his knee.

And amid the tempest pealing,
Sounds of bells came faintly stealing,
Bells, that, from the neighboring cloister,
Rang for the Nativity.

In the hall, the serf and vassal
Held, that night, their Christmas wassail,
Bells, that, from the neighboring cloister,
Sang the minstrels and the waits.

And so loud these Saxon gleemen
Sang to slaves the song of freemen,
That the storm was heard but faintly,
Knocking at the castle gates.

Till at length the lays they chanted
Reached the chamber terror-haunted,
Where the monk, with accents holy,
Whispered at the baron's ear.

Tears upon his eyelids glistened,
And he passed awhile and listened;
And the dying baron slowly
Turned his weary head to hear.

"Wassail for the king's stranger
Born and cradled in a manger!
King, like David, priest, like Aaron,
Christ is born to set us free?"

And the lightning showed the sainted
Figures on the casement painted,
And exclaimed the shuddering baron,
"Miserere, Domine!"

In that hour of deep contrition
He beheld, with clearer vision,
Through all outward show and fashion,
Justice, the Avenger, rise.

SETTLEMENT OF INDIAN CLAIMS.

While on all sides at present there prevails an earnest desire to see the strong arm of the law make itself to be felt upon the savage wretches who have given vent to their blood-thirsty instincts in the murder of so many of our white population along the coast north of this, very little stress is placed upon the necessity of giving the Indians no cause for entertaining ill feelings against the whites. While we insist that they shall observe the obvious dictates of natural law, we should at the same time take care that nothing but the most equitable course of conduct shall characterize our dealings with them. When they do wrong let them be immediately sought out and punished; but let us give them no excuse for transgressing. Now, while we are given to understand that some at least of the recent outrages have been committed by some very bad members of tribes generally conducting themselves peaceably towards the whites, yet we have heard upon very good authority that there prevails among all the members of the tribes whose lands have been taken by the Government, a great amount of ill feeling towards the dominant race. The cause of this animosity is simply the neglect of the Executive to make the natives compensation for the property we have appropriated belonging to them. A similar line of conduct was, we believe, the cause of the massacres in Minnesota last year, and has produced the same results in a multitude of other instances. In the present instance there is no excuse. Government have been authorized to expend some $9000 in satisfaction of Indian claims at Cowichan—so that they only are to blame for any trouble that may arise out of the non-payment to the natives of what is fair and just under the circumstances. It may now, however, be not advisable to take any steps for settlement of the claims in question until the perpetrators of the recent murders are brought to justice and have received their deserts. But after that it is only right that no delay should take place in removing from the Indians any just grounds of complaint against their white rulers.—British Colonist.

A PROFITABLE RIDE IN THE PASSENGER CAR.—Recently a lady entered a Green street passenger car, to ride from Broad street to the New York post office. On her right hand was a gentleman-like person. A diamond cluster ring of considerable value sparkled upon the little finger of his right hand. At the corner of Eight and Green streets the car jolted, and the man leaned heavily for an instant against the lady. She fancied that she felt a hand, that didn't belong there, in her pocket, and instinctively thrust her own. As she did so two men got off. One was the person who had given her his seat; the other was the man with the diamond ring. In another minute the lady ascertained that her pocket-book was gone. In that same minute the two men in question in stunning plaid who had ridden beside her. The lady, after asking advice, took the ring to a Chesnut street jeweller, who gave for it his check for $500. The nett profit made by the lady on her ride was $493 45.

IMPORTANT TO WILLIAMS CREEK MINERS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned will be prepared to furnish LUMBER of all descriptions suitable for Building, Framing, Shingling, Riffles, &c., on Williams Creek and Jack of Clubs Creek, on or before the fifteenth of May, 1863, without delay, as they are erecting a Water Power Mill that will turn out from ten to fifteen thousand feet of Lumber per day. We hope by giving this timely notice that we may secure the trade and greatly benefit those who may favor us with their patronage, as we will be prepared to furnish Lumber at greatly reduced prices, which all must acknowledge will be of great benefit to the business, as well as the Mining community, in a section of country where Lumber has up to the present time been sold at the enormous price of $250.00 per thousand, owing entirely to the article having to be whip-sawed and labor commanding such high prices. With the use of this Mill we hope to place all parties wishing Lumber in possession of it immediately, thereby facilitating their mining operations greatly, knowing as all do that business as well as mining has been greatly retarded, from not being able to procure Lumber when mostly needed. And we hope with the aid of our Mill, together with the Williams Creek Ditch, which will be completed in time to furnish all with water in the Hill Claims and not interfere with the Creek Claims, also, the surplus waters of Jack of Clubs Creek and Ground Hog Lake turned over the divide into Williams Creek, will enable hundreds, if not thousands, who from the scarcity of water, without the aid of the above named ditch could not profitably do so, to work their Claims; also the great and beneficial influence which must inevitably accrue to all, both Hill and Creek Claims, from the great and costly bed-rock Flume, being at present partly constructed, for the purpose of carrying off effectually the tailings that must, with the advancement of mining on the whole Creek and hills on both sides of the Creek, naturally fill up and prove a great annoyance, owing to the scarcity of water, there not being a sufficient quantity most of the season running naturally in Williams Creek to accomplish the great work; but with the assistance of the surplus waters of Jack of Clubs and Ground Hog Lake waters flowing into Williams Creek and the great bed-rock Flume to carry everything through it, will not only prove of incalculable benefit to all, but place Williams Creek beyond the rivalry of any other mining locality in the Cariboo country.

EASE AND HEALTH TO THE SICK

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

DISTANCES OF THE SKIN.

Universal approbation has been awarded to this famous Ointment for its efficiency in removing diseases of the skin. For scrofula, scurvy, scald heads, and all eruptions of the skin, both in infancy and mature years, no remedy can be applied which so quickly cures as Holloway's Ointment. In the nursery it should always be at hand to ease the many skin affections to which the majority of children are liable. In all heat and tooth rashes, the Ointment is wonderfully cooling and curative. To soldiers, sailors, miners, and travellers in foreign lands, it is invaluable.

SORES, WOUNDS, BAD BREASTS, BAD LEGS.
In this class of maladies, an improvement in the appearance of the disease of the patient, follows the first dressing with the Ointment.

It must not only be smeared on the wound, or sore, but be briskly rubbed for some inches round about the diseased swollen or painful parts. It will penetrate to the blood vessels, nerves, and muscles, and even to the bone, and will exercise the most wholesome, healing, and purifying power over every tissue requisite for thorough reparation. The effect of the Ointment is increased by fomenting with warm water before the Ointment is rubbed in; but sores, when healing, should never be cleansed with sponge or anything else, as the young and new flesh which appears like a cream, would be washed away.

BLOOD TO THE HEAD, APOPLEXY.
Nothing gives so much ease in these complaints from which so many suffer, as Holloway's cooling and healing Ointment. When rubbed upon the spine it acts most energetically in drawing surplus blood from the brain; even to children in teething; this Ointment has a miraculous effect in preventing fits and convulsions, so often attendant on tooth-cutting. The Pills should be used according to the directions.

RHEUMATISM, GOUT, STIFF JOINTS.
Every one suffering from these painful affections should use this purifying Ointment, as it has rescued thousands from a life of torture, after every other means had been tried in vain. The Ointment should be well rubbed into the skin at least twice a day, after it has been properly fomented with warm salt water, and dried. The inflammation soon yields, and the patient no longer helpless; resumes his accustomed occupation.

GLANDULAR SWELLINGS, BRONCHITIS, MUMS, SORE THROAT, AND DIPHTHERIA.

To combat these diseases with success, a remedy is required which will have the whole absorbent system under its control. Such a remedy is Holloway's Ointment, when rubbed on the skin; it penetrates to the glands, and removes any obstruction or impurity which may be impeding their healthy action. This Ointment acts on the very mainspring of life, for through the glands pass all the matter required for the body's reparation; in all the above class of cases, the Ointment and Pills used conjointly will act so searchingly, and certainly, as to effect cures in the most deplorable cases.

PISTULAS AND PILLS.
All inflammations and ulcerations of sensitive parts may be presently relieved, and ultimately cured, by the diligent use of this cooling and healing Ointment, aided twice daily by bathing the parts in cold water. Immediate ease springs from this treatment; perseverance is necessary to effect a permanent cure.

ASTHMA, SHORTNESS OF BREATH.
In these complaints the Ointment should be well rubbed twice a day upon the chest, and between the shoulders; it will penetrate to the lungs, stimulate them to renewed exertions, prevent stagnation of blood, moderate the pulsations of the heart, regulate the current of air through the bronchial tubes, and thus effect a permanent cure.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:—

Bad Legs. Chapped Hands. Scalds.
Bad Breasts. Contracted and Sore Nipples.
Burns. Stiff Joints. Sore Throats.
Bunions. Elephantiasis. Skin Diseases.
Bite of Mosquitoes. Fistulas. Scurvy.
and Sand-Flies. Gout. Sore-heads.
Coco-bay. Glandular Swellings. Tumors.
Chiego-foot. Lings. Ulcers.
Corns (soft). Lumbago. Wounds.
Cancers. Piles. Yaws.
Chilblains. Rheumatism.

" Lytton to McLean's, 47 "
" McLean's to Junction of Wagon Roads, 19 "

From Douglas to Lillooet, 110 Miles.
" Lillooet to Junction, 47 "

Dist. from Douglas to Junction, 157 "

THE JUNCTION

is the point at which the Wagon Roads intersect each other, and where the Cariboo-bound traveller by the Yale-Lytton and Douglas-Lillooet routes MUST meet. It will, therefore, be seen by the above figures that the traveller by YALE and LYTTON has

THIRTY-THREE MILES LESS TRAVEL

than if he went by the Douglas-Lillooet route.

Remember that on this Route there are NO PORTAGES where Goods or Animals may be detained.
